Subject: Out next week

As you know, I'll be out next week.

For GKM, Doug Naftz is working Monday through Wednesday next week, and Liz Berg in OGC is working every day except Thanksgiving. You can contact them about any GKM matters that can't wait until I return. They're actively working on the ongoing GKM issues so I don't anticipate any problems. In particular, Doug is working with Sandy Stavnes to hire Steve Way for the 30(b)(6) deposition.

For Dewey Burdock, we've finalized the Indian law responses in the RTC, and I've helped the UIC program create template letters to tribes informing them that we've concluded tribal consultation and are issuing the final permits. Darcy intends to send those Tuesday. As long as the program uses the templates, they shouldn't need any further legal input. But if something changes and they need me, you can call me.

I don't anticipate any coverage needed for any of my other projects.

If you need to reach me for any reason, please call me on my personal cell phone at
